SPORTS DAY

The annual Sports Day of our college was held on 12 September 2023 showcasing the talents of athletes. On that day, the atmosphere of the college took a festive look. The programme begins with the welcome ceremony of the chief guests, Mr. Uma Shankar-Chief Judo Coach Indian Team, our honorable chairman, and secretary. Our college director Mr. Nitin Shirirao welcomed the esteemed gathering emphasized on the importance of sports in student's life. The day started off with the lovely rendition to the lord. Even the day was grandly inaugurated by releasing balloons and pigeon.

The torch and Olympic flame are two of the greatest symbols of Olympics. Our college athletic champions Hema, Shobana and Sowrinathan carried the olympic torch majestically.

Then the much awaited track and field events started. Many new records were made in 1500 meters, 100 meters, 200 meters and 4*400 meters relay. Neha and Soniya declared the best athlete of the meet. The medals to winners were given away by the chief guest. The merit and participation certificate were given away by our chairman and secretary.

Fun time with staff Walking Race, Musical Chair, Four Corners and Shuttle added to the enjoyment. The best March Past trophy and the overall departmental games trophy for boys was awarded to the MCA department.

The overall departmental games trophy for girls was awarded to MCA. The athletic individual championship for Boys was given to Neha

The athletic individual championship for Girls was awarded to Soniya

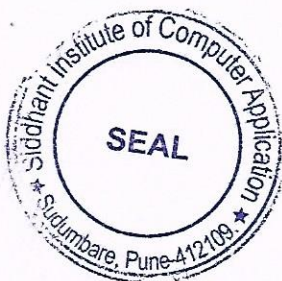

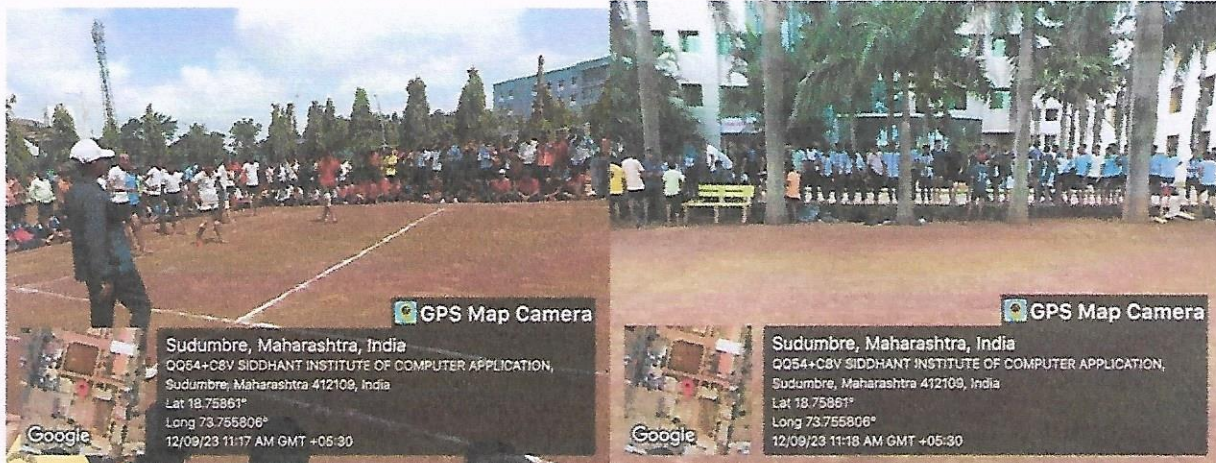

At the end of the day, students departed with a clear smile on their faces. It was a day filled with sportsmanship, enthusiasm, and memories to cherish. Our Director Nitin Shirirao of this esteemed institution thanked all the teachers for their Co-operation and support and advised students to keep up their Sportsmanship.
